

Get Your Motor Running! Xtreme Wheels Arrives on the App Store

Perform death-defying stunts on a motorcycle courtesy of Bravo Game Studios

SEVILLE, Spain — July 14, 2011

Bravo Game Studios, the biker-extraordinaire of mobile app development, today announced the launch of their trial bike game, Xtreme Wheels. The fun, explosive, and graphically revolutionary universal app is available on the iTunes App Store today for $3.99.

Take your first ride over many wild and dangerous courses made of twisted ramps, precious cargo containers, and deadly explosive barrels. Flip and fly your way around the obstacles without crashing to the ground or—even worse—blowing yourself to shreds. Boast your biking brilliance on Game Center. And feast your eyes on the beautiful 3D retina display and the visual prowess of the A5 dual core processor on the iPad 2.

Get your motor running and get out to the App Store! Click here to download Xtreme Wheels today: <http://itunes.apple.com/us/app/xtreme-wheels/id435899356?l=es&ls=1&mt=8>
